 - D. Slide four uprights with the upmarking up between crossbar of wheelbase and the big middle crossbar.
 - E. Move the uprights in or outside according to the plate size you use and be sure that they hit the same marking at both crossbars.
 - F. Tighten the middle crossbar and thus the uprights by fixing the second center column with the female side down.
 - G. Put the small upper crossbar on the male side of the second center column and use the female wingnut to tighten a little.
 - H. Slide four uprights with upmarking up between upper and middle crossbar.
 - I. Move the uprights in or outside according to the plate size you use and be sure that they hit the same marking at both crossbars.
